Peiping, 8 September (Hsin-hua) -- The Ministry of Public Health and the China People's Relief Association called a consultative conference recently and reorganized the Red Cross Society of China, elected new officials, and adopted a new constitution in accordance with the directive of the Government Administration Council and the resolutions passed at the China People's Relief Delegates Conference.

The consultative conference was attended by 20 representatives from the Ministries of Public Health, Interior, and Foreign Affairs; Commissions of the Affairs of Nationalities and Overseas Chinese Affairs; the public health department of the People's Revolutionary Military Council; the Peiping People's government; China People's Relief Association, All-China Federation of Labor, All-China Democratic Women's Federation, All-China Democratic Youth League, All-China Federation of Literature and Arts, and the former Red Cross Society of China.

The conference heard Hu Lan-sheng (1) [numbers refer to appended characters], chief secretary of the former Red Cross Society of China, give a report on the activities of the old organization. Li Te-ch'uan, Minister of Public Health, reported on the future task of the new organization, and Wu Yun-fu (2), chief secretary of the China People's Relief Association, discussed the principles governing the reorganization. The speeches were followed by the adoption of a new constitution and the election of 27 members of the Board of Directors, Red Cross Society of China.

At the meeting of the Board of Directors, a chairman, four deputy chairmen, six members of the Standing Committee, a chief secretary, and two deputy chief secretaries were elected. The names of officials of the Board of Directors, Red Cross Society of China, are:

Chairman: Li Te-ch'uan

Deputy Chairmen: P'eng Tse-min (3), Liu Hung-sheng (4), T'ai Chin-ting (5), Hu Lan-sheng (1)
